

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County
CENTRAL VILLAGE

Guest of 90 Leaves For Norwich Visit—Plenty of Work at Red Cross Room—Mill Busy on Army Order.

Miss Charlotte Beece of Boston, spent Sunday with local relatives. Mrs. Randall Lewis of Woodstock, Frank and Arthur Davis, Stuart Ellsworth spent Sunday at his home in Uxbridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Street have been entertaining friends from Pascoag this week.

Miss Helen Waldo Tillinghast has returned from Attitash, Mass. where she has been attending the graduating exercises at Lassie Seminary, which she formerly attended. Her roommate was one of the graduates.

A Traveler at 90. Nathaniel P. Thompson, who is in his 90th year, has been spending a few days at William Dean's. He came from Providence, accompanied, and Sunday went to Norwich to visit his aunt, Miss Emily Willcox, who is 92 years old.

Mrs. Charles Kingsbury of Danielson was a Sunday visitor here, where she lived several years ago, where her husband was station agent here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edgerton and daughter, Hazel, visited in Canterbury Sunday, where Mrs. Edgerton formerly lived.

Warren Slick, town garden supervisor, is spending a few days at Storrs college where he was a former student.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nettleton are entertaining their grandson from Philadelphia.

Marion Pike is visiting Mystic relatives. Raymond Rider has gone to Watch Hill, R. I. with J. Arthur Atwood's family of Wauregan. He is chauffeur for the family.

Mrs. Charles Dearborn has returned from a visit with Miss Mary McGarry in Norwich.

Mrs. Arnold R. Mathewson has been ill with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Connell of Providence spent Sunday at John Fletcher's.

Mrs. Robert Loring was in Providence Sunday to visit relatives.

The King's Daughters met Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weaver and son, John, visited Mr. Weaver's parents in Brooklyn Sunday.

Arthur Bradley is ill.

Has Army Contract. Some of the boys at the Central Village mill are running until 10 o'clock, the company having an order for army goods.

Charles Bragg has been a business visitor in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinch have returned from their wedding trip to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rivers of Norwich were Wednesday visitors with Mrs. Rivers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Couchman.

Louis Bassett has finished work at the Central Cash Market, and is employed in Dupont's store in Philadelphia.

Miss Bridget Sullivan has gone to Watch Hill for the summer.

Red Cross Work. The Red Cross room will be open on Wednesday and Friday from two to five, where volunteers will find plenty of work ready to sew at the rooms, or to be taken home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse were in Willimantic Tuesday to attend the concert at the Chautauque, given by the Mikado company, of which Miss Edythe Seguin of this village is a member.

Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. Charles Bragg, Mrs. Charles Barber, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Wilfred Lawson, Mrs. William Loring and Mrs. E. Hoxie Lillibridge attended the King's Daughters' convention in Jersey City.

Earl Russell Bragg of Olinville, has been spending a few days at his home in this village.

Leave For Watch Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mathewson have gone to Watch Hill, where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

Miss Mae Preston, of Danielson has been at Mr. Frederick Mitchell's this week.

Mrs. Abby Hopkins has returned from Willimantic, where she has been visiting Miss Jessie James.

noon. They were accompanied by their daughters, Mrs. Edith P. Hart and Mrs. Bert Smith and the husband of the former, Thomas Hart. Mr. Woodward was pastor in Mapleville from 1907 to 1911.

James Albert Pray, of Beacon Falls, was a caller early in the week on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pray, Principal III.

Miss Grace Edick, principal of the village school, was taken ill after school exercises Tuesday night and has been confined to her boarding place at Mrs. Hesterton's since then. Her place was filled at school by Mrs. Turner, wife of the supervisor.

Game With Ramblers Today. Last Saturday the Ramblers' team had another tussle with the Manhametts of Putnam on the latter's field. They redeemed themselves from their defeat of the previous week, winning 6 to 2. This afternoon on their home field they are to try it out with the Ramblers of Grovesdale.

In the basement of the Catholic church last Tuesday evening was given the cabbage roll school, so a good sized audience.

The village band marked Registration day by rendering patriotic selections in the evening.

The usual six o'clock service, held bi-weekly in Blackstone hall, will be continued tomorrow evening as the children will attend the church concert at the Attitash Methodist church.

EASTFORD

Orange Supper Well Patronized—Town Boasts Thirty Patriots Who Register Promptly.

Sumner Warren is the owner of a pair of goats.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church held an orange supper at the chapel last Thursday evening with Miss Lillian Huntington, Mrs. H. A. Bosworth and Mrs. Fred A. Bowen as hostesses.

After supper a short entertainment programme was given at which games were played. Mrs. Edgar Bosworth and son, Kenneth, visited the first of the week with relatives in South Woodstock.

Charles Lewis of Putnam has been ill at his home.

Miss Emily Wilcox entertained her sister, Mary, of Sprucefield, Thursday night.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Miller of West Thompson, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark.

Charles E. Buell spent a couple of days recently in Peterham, Mass. Edna Buell returned to her home on Tuesday in the western part of the town after spending a week with her uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Miller in West Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and son, Herbert, of Putnam, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Marey and Austin of Putnam were in town Tuesday.

Frank Herrick of West Thompson was in town Tuesday.

Miss Florence Warren of New York is here for the summer.

Herbert Keith is the owner of a goat.

Thirty Patriots Listed. Registration day the bells were rung at 7 a. m., 12:30 and 7 p. m. The following 30 persons registered:

Owen Pearl Adams, Clifford S. Bowen, Grover S. Bowen, Charles Farrington, Edith R. Bowen, Charles H. Buell, William Caboon, Charles W. Clark, Henry T. Crapo, Urban V. Carpenter, Ralph E. Davis, Walter E. Darling, A. H. Eastbrook, Harmon J. French, Albert V. Green, Edmund W. Green, John Gabrys, John Palechitz, Edward S. Keith, Everett D. Keith, William H. Keith, Henry O. May, Stanislaw Romanewicz, Bronistaw Swincloki.

St. Simeon S. Sherman, Ernest S. Stevens, Nathaniel L. Sherman, John Slovic, Ernest F. Upham, Archie S. Walker.

The registration board consisted of Selectmen Henry Buell, Town Clerk Charles Clark, Registrars of voters Charles Wheaton and Welcome Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, Mrs. Edgar Bosworth and son, Kenneth, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Worcester.

ABINGTON

Sunday School Social—Children's Day Exercises Indefinitely Postponed Because of Illness.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gallup recently visited friends in Westport.

Miss Edith Gallup will speak at the church Sunday evening on the work of the Red Cross.

Exercises Postponed. Children's Day exercises, which were to have been held Sunday morning, have been indefinitely postponed because so many of the children have German measles.

After a week's vacation, the Sunday school of the Congregational church held a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Covel.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society met Thursday afternoon at Library hall.

President Elected. At the meeting of the cemetery association Saturday afternoon, Fitz Henry Faine was elected president to take the place of Mrs. Lewis Averill, resigned. It was voted to make a new driveway on the land recently purchased.

Rev. Frank Fuller attended the State Association of Ministers, held in Hartford Tuesday.

Mrs. Fannie Fuller is home from Daville.

Miss Eudora Grosvenor is visiting friends in Taunton, Mass.

Miss Edith Clapp is substituting in the primary school at Pomfret Landing for Miss Annie Averill, who is ill.

To Present Play. Wolf Den Grange Dramatic club will soon present the drama, Men and Otis, at Grange hall.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK. Quite a few from Putnam lodge, A. F. & A. M., attended Memorial lodge meeting last evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Moffitt last Thursday.

C. W. Bowen of New York opened his summer home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Young spent a day in Worcester this week.

A good number were present at the strange meeting last Wednesday night.

The lecturer's programme consisted of a short farce, debate and a roll call, each member naming his or her favorite spot in Woodstock. Sister Child read a paper on the history of Woodstock.

NORTH WINDHAM. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ide of Providence were visitors at W. G. Stevens' Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude Frink and Miss Valma Frink were in Scotland Memorial day.

Charles Ross of Chaplin was a caller at Mr. Henry Parkerson's Monday.

Mr. Larrow is pushing work on his bungalow and expects to have it ready for occupancy by the middle of the summer.

SOUTH WINDHAM

Guilford Smith Able to Ride Out Daily—Chautauque Singers Entertained—Recent Visitors.

Mrs. Hermosa Simmons is ill. The local schools are having a short session commencing at 8:30 and closing at 1 o'clock.

Guilford Smith is now able to ride out a little each day.

Timothy Watts has been in New Haven and Bridgeport on a business trip.

Mrs. Stephen Granberry and Mr. and Mrs. Waterman and children of Hartford, have arrived in town to spend the summer at the Smith homestead.

Alfred Watts has been employed in Monson, Mass., for a few days.

Bearl Chamberlain was in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Eugene Abel and children of Lebanon, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Abel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wade.

Mrs. Thomas McCloud and daughter, Helen, was in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Stratford, Vermont, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Manning.

In Granite State. Miss Martha Manning went Thursday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Prescott Chamberlain of Chesham, N. H.

Mrs. W. P. Barstow who has been ill is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kinne and daughter, of Hartford, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Card motored to Putnam Sunday.

Perry Crane returned to his home Monday from Danbury.

James Steadman has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Harry Keller, of Hartford for three days.

Mrs. William Backus and Mrs. Eugene Kinne attended the funeral of Mrs. C. F. Luby of Noank, Wednesday.

Mrs. Miron Hadfield and Little son, Miron, were in Columbia Wednesday visiting Mrs. Hadfield's aunt, Mrs. William Green.

Miss Margaret Thompson of New York is the guest of Miss Sarah Abbe.

Entertained Singers. Misses Ada Porter and Mabel Morgan of the cast of the comic opera, The Mikado, which was produced at the Chautauque Tuesday evening were guests of E. W. Avery and family Wednesday.

Miss Porter is a cousin of Mrs. E. W. Avery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Avery and daughters, Helen and Florence, were guests of relatives in Middlebury Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. W. Avery, of Unadilla.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Avery were guests of relatives in Middlebury Sunday.

John Rose of Hartford has been in town the past week.

Mrs. Guy Underwood is suffering from nervous prostration.

Warren Williams of Brooklyn, has been the guest of E. W. Avery and family.

Charles Oman and family had as their guests at Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Kirchner and daughter, Miss Freda, and son, Robert, of Williamsville.

WINDHAM

Local Congregational Pastor to Preach in Norwich Baptist Church—Ministers' Association to Meet Monday—Loomis Place Leased.

Rev. M. R. Plumb is to preach in the Central Baptist church in Norwich Sunday. The speaker at the Congregational church here will be Rev. C. Phillips of the State School of Religion.

Rev. and Mrs. Phillips go to Johannesburg, South Africa, in the fall to engage in social service.

Mrs. A. A. Raymond returned Monday from a week's visit in New York.

Miss Martha Manning has had her sister, Miss Martha Manning as her guest a couple of days this week.

About 30 Windham people attended the Mikado presented by the Chautauque association in Willimantic on Tuesday evening.

Ministers to Meet. The Willimantic Ministers' Association will meet here Monday. The afternoon session will be public. Lunch will be served to the ministers and their wives at noon by the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church.

The committee in charge being Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Mrs. R. C. Atrop, Miss Clara Johnson and Miss Gertrude Arnold.

Loomis House Leased. Mrs. Huxford and daughter of Stamford have rented for the summer the house owned and occupied by the late Mrs. Eliza Loomis.

Miss Emma Larabee returned on Wednesday after three days' visit in Willimantic with her mother and sister-in-law.

Mrs. Emma Brown attended the annual meeting of the Eastern Connecticut branch of the Women's Board of Foreign Missions in New London Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Courtney of Willimantic is spending some time at the Inn.

In Green Mountain State. Alfred Eaton has gone to Vermont for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe, Jr., and children of Pittsburg are expected at Walter Abbe's today (Saturday).

Mrs. Ethel Johnson Closser of Washington has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams this week.

Miss Josephine Bingham returned Thursday from a brief visit in New London and East Haddam.

Miss Anna Bates of Springfield, Mass., was at home over Sunday.

Children's day will be observed at the Congregational church one week from Sunday.

Ned and Jack Thompson and a friend from New York were at the Inn from Friday until Tuesday.

Rev. M. R. Plumb attended the conference of Connecticut Congregational ministers in Hartford Tuesday and Wednesday.

DAYVILLE

Special Service For Children's Day—New Pastor Assumes Duties—Red Cross Membership 130.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig spent the week end in New York.

Frank W. Bennett was a week end guest of his son, Merrill, in Providence.

Milton S. Burnett of Worcester, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Burnett over Sunday.

Mrs. Roland Bennett of Bridgeport, who has been visiting in New York, returned home Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. Barnes spent Monday in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Burnett of Providence, were visitors with F. J. Burnett and family Wednesday.

Mrs. Emma Hopkins of New York and Miss Chamberlain of San Diego, were recent guests of Mrs. R. U. Curtis and family.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Braton entertained Miss Edna Turner of Woonsocket, R. I. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pavetta W. Geer and daughter, Freda, of Brookline, Mass., spent last week with Mrs. Sarah I. Geer.

Entertained Aid Society. The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Lillian Moseley Tuesday afternoon. At the social hour the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davignon and family from Danielson, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sarah I. Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Tait Hope and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig have entertained Rev. William Swanson this week.

Mrs. Swanson and daughter arrived on Friday from Cherryfield, Me. They will soon be settled in the parsonage.

Children of the Pilgrims. Children's day will be observed at the Congregational church Sunday morning. The Tercentenary service "Children of the Pilgrims," will be used. The pastor will give a short address.

Consistent Settlement Work. The meeting of the Women's Missionary society Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Bennett was very interesting.

Miss Franklin pleasantly reported her visit to Aloia camp, Northfield, Mass., last summer.

The subject for the afternoon was Settlement Work at the Hull House, by Miss Jane Adams. Mrs. Fannie S. Bennett as leader, read an interesting paper, Miss Stokes read an article in regard to Miss Adams' Childhood and early life. The hostess served ice cream and cake and a social hour was enjoyed. It was the last meeting until September 1st.

New Congregational Pastor. Rev. William Swanson assumed his pastorate at the Congregational church Sunday, and made a very favorable impression. His sermon was helpful and forceful; the theme being "Love the Supreme Test of Christian Virtue." In the evening his address was patriotic, urging the taking of Liberty Bonds.

Has 130 Members. The Red Cross Branch here is steadily gaining; at present we number, including Attitash and Eastville, 130 members, with more coming. The ladies meet each Wednesday afternoon and evening and accomplish considerable work.

CANTERBURY GREEN. Members of M. P. Church to Attend Children's Day Service at The Green—Graduating Exercises—Town Has 43 Registrations.

The people of the Methodist church at the Plain will be guests at the Children's Day service tomorrow, June 10, at the Green. The choir of the two churches will unite in singing the "Pilgrims' Chorus," and other special music. "The Children of the Pilgrims" service with part of the singing pageant will be given by the Sunday school. Little children will be brought for baptism and the pastor will preach a short sermon to the children. The service is at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor service at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Arthur Rosvick of Plainfield last Sunday morning preached a most helpful sermon upon the home—the influence of father and mother on the life of the child, especially emphasizing the responsibility of the parents for the child's conception of God.

In the evening many attended the Union Memorial service held at the Methodist church at the Plain. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and with the national colors. A choir of voices from the three churches was led by Mrs. Emily Bushnell.

The Mikado, which was produced at the Chautauque Tuesday evening was enjoyed by Mr. St. John supplying at the church led the service being assisted by the ministers of the other churches. Rev. T. S. Davies of Westminster gave the address.

Programme For Graduation. This closing and graduating exercises of the Canterbury schools will bring together people from all the school districts at the Grange hall on programme follows, at 2 p. m. The programme follows: March, America, chorus, Essay, The Telescope, Alvin La Chapelle, Smith school; physics, exercise, Green school; song, Salute to the flag, Raymond school; recitation, Fred Allen, Westminster; essay, The Red Cross, Myrtle Phillips, Green school; song, Antiochite, Markowitz, Peck school; exercise, Frost school; essay, The American flag, Elsie Combs, Smith school; recitation, Ruth Davis, Green school; song, Packer school; recitation, Chari drill, Green school; reading, Mrs. Claude Lends Five Pounds, R. Del-Pesco, North Society; singing signals, South Society; recitation, The Grange, Charles D. Hine; The Star Spangled Banner, choral.

Forty-Three Men Register. Canterbury bells rang valiantly at 7 o'clock morning and again at the evening of Registration day and Canterbury men 43 did their duty at the registration place in the town clerk's office under the direction of the registrars, Herbert Williams and William C. Aldrich.

Canterbury represented among the volunteers, five men already being in active military training.

The Red Cross workers will meet on Monday at 2:30 p. m. again with Mrs. William Rollinson.

This meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. S. B. Hadley, at South Canterbury.

Took Party to Storrs. Last Monday a minister's car from the Green took a delegation of ladies to the State Agricultural college at Storrs. Mrs. James Lathrop, Miss F. E. Brown and Mrs. T. E. Davies spending the week there taking the Canning course. The minister, Rev. W. H. Jones, continued on to Hartford to attend Tuesday and Wednesday the two hundred and eight annual meeting of the General Association of Ministers of Connecticut.

Saturday last the minister's car took a delegation to the children's rally at Osogood Memorial in Norwich. Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Beatrice Hart, and Miss Helen Brown being guests of Miss Jones and Miss Brown on the trip.

Close of School Year. School in the Wythe district closed Thursday. These were the closing entertainments of recitations and songs. It is expected that Miss Blacklee will return to the school another year. There has been an epidemic of scarlet fever, man measles and mumps in the school, the teacher being one of those ill.

Ill. Congregational school will hold its graduating exercises in Grange hall. Misses Lena Sayles, Madeline Gallup and Ralph Wilcox are the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Braton entertained Miss Edna Turner of Woonsocket, R. I. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pavetta W. Geer and daughter, Freda, of Brookline, Mass., spent last week with Mrs. Sarah I. Geer.

Entertained Aid Society. The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Lillian Moseley Tuesday afternoon. At the social hour the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davignon and family from Danielson, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sarah I. Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Tait Hope and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig have entertained Rev. William Swanson this week.

Mrs. Swanson and daughter arrived on Friday from Cherryfield, Me. They will soon be settled in the parsonage.

Children of the Pilgrims. Children's day will be observed at the Congregational church Sunday morning. The Tercentenary service "Children of the Pilgrims," will be used. The pastor will give a short address.

Consistent Settlement Work. The meeting of the Women's Missionary society Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Bennett was very interesting.

Miss Franklin pleasantly reported her visit to Aloia camp, Northfield, Mass., last summer.

The subject for the afternoon was Settlement Work at the Hull House, by Miss Jane Adams. Mrs. Fannie S. Bennett as leader, read an interesting paper, Miss Stokes read an article in regard to Miss Adams' Childhood and early life. The hostess served ice cream and cake and a social hour was enjoyed. It was the last meeting until September 1st.

New Congregational Pastor. Rev. William Swanson assumed his pastorate at the Congregational church Sunday, and made a very favorable impression. His sermon was helpful and forceful; the theme being "Love the Supreme Test of Christian Virtue." In the evening his address was patriotic, urging the taking of Liberty Bonds.

Has 130 Members. The Red Cross Branch here is steadily gaining; at present we number, including Attitash and Eastville, 130 members, with more coming. The ladies meet each Wednesday afternoon and evening and accomplish considerable work.

CANTERBURY GREEN. Members of M. P. Church to Attend Children's Day Service at The Green—Graduating Exercises—Town Has 43 Registrations.

The people of the Methodist church at the Plain will be guests at the Children's Day service tomorrow, June 10, at the Green. The choir of the two churches will unite in singing the "Pilgrims' Chorus," and other special music. "The Children of the Pilgrims" service with part of the singing pageant will be given by the Sunday school. Little children will be brought for baptism and the pastor will preach a short sermon to the children. The service is at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor service at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Arthur Rosvick of Plainfield last Sunday morning preached a most helpful sermon upon the home—the influence of father and mother on the life of the child, especially emphasizing the responsibility of the parents for the child's conception of God.

In the evening many attended the Union Memorial service held at the Methodist church at the Plain. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and with the national colors. A choir of voices from the three churches was led by Mrs. Emily Bushnell.

The Mikado, which was produced at the Chautauque Tuesday evening was enjoyed by Mr. St. John supplying at the church led the service being assisted by the ministers of the other churches. Rev. T. S. Davies of Westminster gave the address.

Programme For Graduation. This closing and graduating exercises of the Canterbury schools will bring together people from all the school districts at the Grange hall on programme follows, at 2 p. m. The programme follows: March, America, chorus, Essay, The Telescope, Alvin La Chapelle, Smith school; physics, exercise, Green school; song, Salute to the flag, Raymond school; recitation, Fred Allen, Westminster; essay, The Red Cross, Myrtle Phillips, Green school; song, Antiochite, Markowitz, Peck school; exercise, Frost school; essay, The American flag, Elsie Combs, Smith school; rec